Foreign Missions

Thai-Khorat of Thailand

(tie-koh-RAHT) - Sue* was driving to the school for work and singing praise songs to the Lord in her car. Suddenly, she heard a voice say, "I'll help you!" She wondered who said that. Then she heard it again: "I'll help you!" She knew that it was God, and tears came to her eyes. It was her birthday, and the Lord had given her a special encouragement. Despite opposition from other teachers and parents, she had continued to share the love of God with her students through words and actions. Many of her students had faith in God because she had prayed with them and God had heard their prayers. She had faced committees and principals questioning her sharing about Jesus with the students, but she had not stopped. God will always help her! Pray for Sue to continue to be bold and steadfast in her faith and witness. (*name changed)

Walter Ludwick-evangelism catalyst in Upstate South Carolina

God is at work here in Upstate South Carolina among our ethnic neighbors. I have had the privilege of conducting training sessions in evangelism, discipleship and group development with several of our ethnic churches. Pray for the Upstate Indian Fellowship as members invite their far-from-God friends to their homes to build relationships and share Bible stories. In one apartment complex where we were visiting a Hindu family, we were told 45 other Hindu families lived in the complex. Pray for the Lord's wisdom in reaching them and for persons of peace within the Hindu community. In January, the Lord sent a Chinese church planter to our area. Pray as we work together to find persons of peace within our Chinese community and that we might see a Chinese church planted in this area for the Lord's glory.
