Missions: Foreign and Home

East Asian Peoples

"Why are you here?" People from remote, unreached areas often ask this question of foreigners and people of different ethnic origins from other parts of their own country. In places where governments are opposed to the spread of Christianity, open evangelism is not possible; therefore, many people may wonder what motivates Christians to travel into their area. Sharing Christ while meeting physical needs is a great way to influence East Asia's unreached areas. The gospel can travel far through sports, agriculture, music, and many other avenues. Pray that God will send Christians who are willing to use their skills for kingdom purposes. This month, we are praying for more opportunities to creatively access the unreached peoples of East Asia. Ask God to give wisdom to those seeking entry into the remote areas and pray that those in positions of authority will look favorably on them and open doors for them.

Jason McKinney
Cincinnati, OH

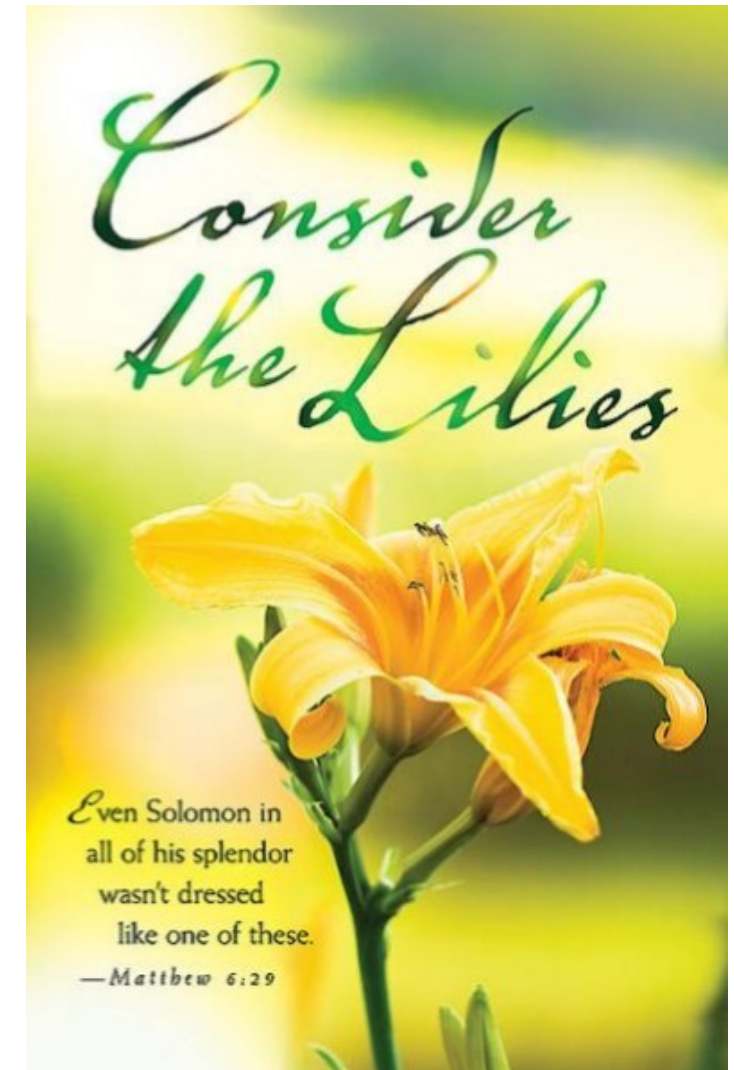

Jason McKinney is lead pastor/planter of One Church in Cincinnati, Ohio. As we learn to be a church of downtown (not just in downtown) Cincinnati, doors are opening to create community within the apartment groups. We need a new group of leaders who can live in and become part of these communities. The path is before us to expand and reach into our growing population; now we need new leaders to raise up or move in. Pray for the new leaders, the relationship with apartment managers, the network with local businesses and the potential within the corporate world of our downtown.
