Foreign Missions

Thai-Khorat of Thailand

(tie-koh-RAHT) - "Now* did not know the strength and poison of the chemicals she sprayed on her fields. Her husband had abandoned her, and she was in charge of the farm. But as she developed health problems, lost weight, and her hair thinned out, she realized that her body had been poisoned. One of the Thai-Khorat believers knew her and thought that God was the answer for her life, so we all went to visit Now at her house. We visited her a couple of times, and she quietly listened as we shared the gospel. We could see that she was interested. The third time we visited Now, we could see that her health had deteriorated even more. She was lying down when we arrived at her house, but she got up to receive us. She quietly listened as Amber* shared with her. Amber asked if she would like to accept Jesus as her Lord and Savior. Now said yes, and she prayed the prayer of salvation with Amber. Praise the Lord! Pray for Now to grow in her faith. Ask for her body to be healed, and pray that she will grow stronger. Jesus is Now's last hope." (*name changed)

Home Missions

Diana Anderson
Greenville, Ky.

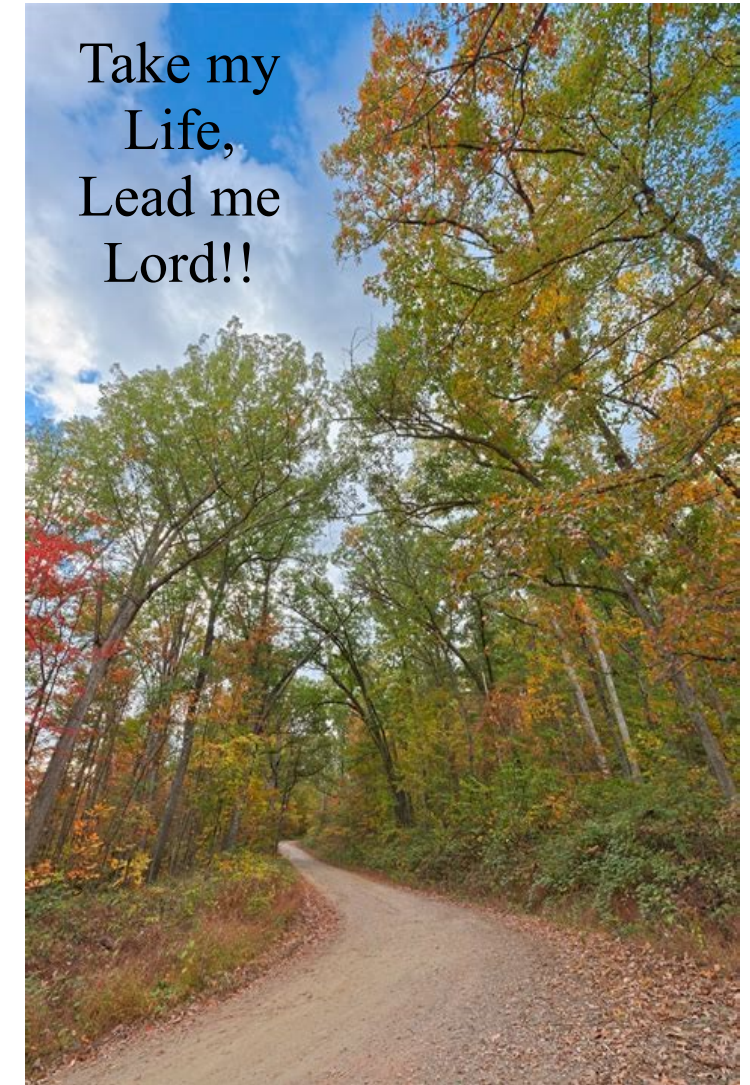

Diana Anderson is a missionary serving in Kentucky as the executive director of Pathway of Hope crisis pregnancy center. We have just been blessed with the gift of an ultrasound machine. At this time the machine has to be upstairs; therefore, it is not handicapped accessible. We believe that God would not provide such a blessing if it were not be accessible to all who come into the office. Please pray for us as we seek to sell our current building and look for the next place God has for us to go. We are trusting and believing in God's provision at just the right time. Thank you for praying in agreement with me.
